Q1. Read the following passage and answer the questions that follow:

Prince Siddhartha was born to the ruler of a kingdom close to the Himalayas. At his birth, a holy man had predicted that the child would grow up to be either a great king or a great saint. Siddhartha's father did not want his son to become a saint. So he did his best to protect his son from all knowledge of sickness, pain, suffering and death. However, in spite of all his father's efforts, Siddhartha did finally learn the meaning of unhappiness.

Once as Siddhartha was riding in his chariot, he came across a frail old man. At another time he saw a man suffering from a dreadful disease. One day he passed a procession of men carrying the body of one who had died. Siddhartha asked his charioteer, Chanakya, to explain these things to him. "This happens to all men," said Chanakya quietly. Siddhartha was shocked. He couldn't believe that he too would die one day. He began to think that his life was meaningless because it would end some day. From that day onwards, he began trying to find out the true meaning of life.
